The Global Celebration of Faith

Imagine if young people all over the globe could gather with Pope Francis in a marvelous city for prayer, leisure, and a personal encounter with Christ? This is called World Youth Day (WYD). On December 20th, 1985 Pope John Paul II instituted WYD in the hopes of inspiring all youth (practicing Catholic or not) to feel heard, open, and hopeful by the Catholic Church. In 1986, WYD was hosted in Rome, Italy and in August of 2023 the celebration will be hosted in Lisbon, Portugal. Holy Spirit intends to fly out a group of students with adult chaperones to Portugal but we need your help! This Sunday, support our group by visiting our breakfast sale in the hall. Our main dish will be menudo along with burritos, tacos, donuts, nachos, drinks, and more until supplies last. Thank you for your support!
