THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 2ND, 2023

This weekend marks the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Summer has graced us with sunnier days and you might be in the middle of planning your Fourth of July Celebrations. In 1776, this land we call home was established as the United States of America — a nation independent from the British crown. The colonies believed in a unification of the states and the possibility of a brighter future for generations. In 2023, we the people are reaping the benefits of the sacrifices of those before us and as a nation, we have come to accept the wounds as much as the triumphs of our history. No matter what your Fourth of July celebrations look like, as Catholics, we cannot deny the wonderful blessings of living here. The First Amendment in our Constitution allows us the freedoms of speech, assembly, press, petition government, and religion. As a people of faith, we can attend mass and assemble in prayer without fear that our government will persecute us. These are privileges other countries might not be as generous to support. During mass, pray for the souls of the revolutionary cause such as those lost to the Battles of Lexington and Concord, Battle of Bunker Hill, Siege of Boston, Capture of Fort Ticonderoga, and more. Thank God for the right of being Catholic and celebrating our faith in public or private. We here at Holy Spirit wish you and your families a happy Fourth of July!

Este fin de semana marca el Decimotercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. El verano nos ha obsequiado con días más soleados y es posible que esté en medio de la planificación de sus celebraciones del 4 de julio. En 1776, esta tierra que llamamos hogar se estableció como los Estados Unidos de América, una nación independiente de la corona británica. Las colonias creían en la unificación de los estados y en la posibilidad de un futuro mejor para las generaciones. En 2023, nosotros, el pueblo, estamos cosechando los beneficios de los sacrificios de quienes nos precedieron y, como nación, hemos llegado a aceptar las heridas tanto como los triunfos de nuestra historia. No importa cómo sean sus celebraciones del 4 de julio, como católicos, no podemos negar las maravillosas bendiciones de vivir aquí. La Primera Enmienda de nuestra Constitución nos permite las libertades de expresión, reunión, prensa, petición al gobierno y religión. Como pueblo de fe, podemos asistir a misa y reunirnos en oración sin temor a que nuestro gobierno nos persiga. Estos son privilegios que otros países podrían no ser tan generosos para apoyar. Durante la misa, ore por las almas de la causa revolucionaria, como las perdidas en las Batallas de Lexington y Concord, la Batalla de Bunker Hill, el Asedio de Boston, la Captura de Fort Ticonderoga y más. Gracias a Dios por el derecho de ser católicos y celebrar nuestra fe en público o en privado. ¡Aquí en Holy Spirit les deseamos a ustedes y a sus familias un feliz Cuatro de Julio!

SAINT OF THE WEEK/ SANTO DE LA SEMANA

Let us read about Saint Thomas the Apostle—feast day July 3. Saint Thomas represents importance of believing without seeing which is the definition of faith. "Upon hearing that Jesus was returning to Judea, an area that would pose dangers due to the growing animosity of the authorities there, he immediately said to the other apostles, "Let us also go, that we may die with him" (Jn 11: 16). Yet despite this determination, Thomas proved not only too weak to stand beside Jesus as he faced his crucifixion, but also doubted the Lord's Resurrection when he was told about it by the other apostles. Denying their story, he told them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and place my finger in the mark of the nails, and place my hand in his side, I will not believe" (Jn 20:25). A week later, Christ appeared and said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe.' When Thomas did so he exclaimed, "My Lord and my God!" (CatholicNewsAgency).

Leamos sobre Santo Tomás Apóstol, fiesta del 3 de julio. Santo Tomás representa la importancia de creer sin ver cuál es la definición de la fe. "Al enterarse de que Jesús regresaba a Judea, una zona que supondría peligros debido a la creciente animosidad de las autoridades allí, inmediatamente dijo a los demás apóstoles: "Vamos también nosotros, para que muramos con él" (Jn 11 : 16) Sin embargo, a pesar de esta determinación, Tomás demostró no sólo ser demasiado débil para estar al lado de Jesús mientras enfrentaba su crucifixión, sino que también dudó de la resurrección del Señor cuando los demás apóstoles le hablaron de ella. Negando su historia, les dijo: "Si no veo en sus manos la marca de los clavos, y meto el dedo en la marca de los clavos, y meto la mano en su costado, no creeré" (Jn 20,25). Una semana después, Cristo apareció y le dijo a Tomás: 'Pon tu dedo aquí y mira mis manos, y trae tu mano y métela en mi costado, y no seas incrédulo, sino cree'. Cuando Tomás lo hizo, exclamó: "[Señor] mío y Dios mío!" (Agencia Católica de Noticias).

INTENTIONS/ INTENCIÓNES

MARY IMMACULATE PATRONESS OF OUR COUNTRY

O God Our Creator, from your provident hand we have received our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. You have called us as your people and given us the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God, and your Son, Jesus Christ. Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society. We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith. Grant, we pray,

O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome—for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us—this great land will always be “one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.” We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Support Holy Spirit Teens Attend World Youth Day

World Youth Day (WYD) will be hosted in Lisbon, Portugal from August 1-6 and Holy Spirit plans to send a group of teens with chaperones on this pilgrimage. Meet one of the teens in need of your support to attend WYD and see Pope Francis.

“Hi, my name is Francisco Antonio, I am 16 years old, and currently raising money to go to Lisbon, Portugal for World Youth Day 2023. I have been a part of Holy Spirit Parish all of my life. After confirmation, I returned to the Youth Group and joined the retreat team to help lead the Confirmation Retreat. I think Portugal will be a great experience for me and all the youth planning to go.”

Ninth Annual National Conference

Hyatt Regency La Jolla at Aventine

In the past decade, the percentage of Americans calling themselves Christians fell from 77 percent to 65 percent, while the unaffiliated rose from 17 percent to 26 percent. This rapid growth of unbelief is, without question, the most serious threat to the Catholic faith—to say nothing of the salvation of souls. Join us as we consider the solutions to this threat.
