Prayer Corner

~ Prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel ~

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

~ Prayer to Saint Gabriel the Archangel ~

O blessed Archangel Gabriel, we beseech thee, do thou intercede for us at the throne of divine mercy in our present necessities, that as thou didst announce to Mary the mystery of the Incarnation, so through thy prayers and patronage in heaven we may obtain the benefits of the same, and sing the praise of God forever in the land of the living.
Amen.

~ Prayer to Saint Raphael the Archangel ~

O God who in Thy ineffable goodness hast rendered blessed Raphael the conductor of thy faithful in their journeys, we humbly implore Thee that we may be conducted by him in the way of salvation, and experience his help in the maladies of our souls. Through Jesus Christ, Our Lord.
Amen.

Learn How to Pray the Rosary

The saying “Practice how you play” does not just apply to sports and academics but also to the life of a Catholic. One of the most important aspects of our faith is praying the rosary. Learning to meditate on the mysteries by understanding how they relate to Jesus’ timeline will help us create a more fruitful encounter with God with each bead we touch. So remember that it is never too late to practice how to pray! Scan the code to learn today.

Hispanic Heritage Month in the U.S.

Happy National Hispanic Heritage Month! During this month, our nation celebrates the accomplishments and contributions of Hispanics and Latinos. From September 15 to October 15 we recognized the working hands, innovative minds, and creative hearts that improved all industries. Inventions like the world's first U.S. patent for a color television system, electronic translating gloves, and nachos are just some of the major contributions that improved our quality of life in the U.S. Despite these successes, this demographic simultaneously has a history of experiencing racial prejudice. Words like "Speak English", the stripping of children and youths during the Zoot Suit Riots of 1943, about 2 million forced deportations in the 1920s-30s, and the segregation in schools (Mendez v. Westminster Re-Enactment) are just some of the ways our nation used to tolerate discrimination based on race and ethnicity. This is the reason Hispanic Heritage Month reminds us to treat each other with the love that God treats his children no matter their origins. We honor the good to combat the evil of the past and the prejudice that still hides under the tongues of neighbors, maybe our own families, and the minds of people still clouded by hatred. Let us celebrate this month with the good things Hispanic and Latino icons have created!

Who is Nicholas Dunn?

Last weekend, Nicholas Dunn debuted on our bulletin as the new seminarian at Holy Spirit. Get to know more about Nicholas and his journey to the priesthood below:

"Hello! My name is Nicholas Dunn, and I'm very excited to join the Holy Spirit Parish community for Mass and fellowship this fall! I am twenty-one years old and a seminarian studying to become a priest here in the Diocese of San Diego. As part of that study, we are sent to different parishes in the Diocese every year to get to know the people of the Diocese and for them to get to know us. This year, the Rector assigned me to Holy Spirit until the middle of December and then to a different parish after Christmas. I will be at two or three different Masses each weekend, so hopefully, I can meet everyone!

Despite being born in Orange County, I consider myself a San Diego native since I have spent most of my life in Oceanside. I am the oldest of six children. I began discerning the call to the priesthood during High School and realized that my life needed a real purpose. After much discernment, I applied and was accepted to the Seminary here in San Diego in 2021. I am now entering my third year as a seminarian, and God-willing, I expect to be ordained in 2027."

Independence Festival Highlights

A Mexican Independence Day festival was hosted by our Hispanic Community last Sunday in our parish parking lot. Days before the event parishioners took time after work and school to set up everything from food stations, to sound systems, and decorations such as the colorful tissue paper known as "papel picado". The day of the event was even busier as supporting families rushed to buy food after the Sunday masses. The food included enchiladas, crepes, quesabirrias, pozole, ice cream, tacos, nachos with meat, and much more. Performances from singers and dancers came to represent the artistic stylings of the Mexican culture as parishioners enjoyed their meals. Thank you to everyone who supported our festival and a special thank you to our Hispanic community for organizing yet again another great parish event! ## Daily Prayer For Priests

O Jesus,
I pray for your faithful and fervent priests;
For your unfaithful and tepid priests;
For your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields.
For your tempted priests;
For your lonely and desolate priests;
For your young priests;
For your dying priests;
For the souls of your priests in Purgatory.
But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me:
The priest who baptized me;
The priests who absolved me from my sins;
The priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion;
The priests who taught and instructed me;
All the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially.....).
O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart, And bless them abundantly in time and in Eternity.
Amen By St. Therese of Lisieux

Pray for Priests and Vocations
"Now we ask you to respect those who work hard among you. ... Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work." (1 Thess. 5:12, 13, NIV)

REFLECT THROUGH THE GOSPEL

This weekend marks the Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time and in the Gospel, we contemplate the saying, “the last will be first, and the first will be last.” The Book of Matthew tells us the story of a landowner who went in search of laborers to tend to his vineyard. He hired many at different times of the day depending on when he would find them. When the time came to give them their wages, the laborers who worked since the early hours complained about receiving the same wage as those who worked for a shorter amount of time and not in the hot sun. The landowner then replied, “My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage?” and “Are you envious because I am generous?” Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last.” What does this mean as it applies to our daily lives? The phrase calls to one of the seven deadly sins known as envy. To be envious is to be jealous of, covet, or desire something you do not have. We are instructed to not covet our neighbor’s belongings in the commandments because by doing so we are focused on the material possessions that distract us from a virtuous life. That life is to be centered on God and the good works we can do to reflect his love. Envy has been found to be the destruction of goodness within humans through history and the biblical story of Cain and Able. God calls us to combat envy with the virtue of charity which can be shown through generosity and servitude. Being a servant to others means putting ourselves last as Jesus Christ put himself humbly last through miracles, washing the disciple’s feet, and laying his life down for us. This parable reminds us to put ourselves last so that we may be first in the eyes of God.

God Bless!

Mt 20:1-16a

Este fin de semana se celebra el Vigésimo Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario y en el Evangelio contemplamos el dicho: “los últimos serán los primeros, y los primeros serán los últimos”. El Libro de Mateo nos cuenta la historia de un terrateniente que fue en busca de trabajadores para cuidar su viña. Contrató a muchos en diferentes momentos del día dependiendo de cuándo los encontraría. Cuando llegó el momento de darles su salario, los trabajadores que trabajaban desde tempranas horas se quejaron de recibir el mismo salario que los que trabajaron por menos tiempo y no bajo el sol abrasador. El terrateniente respondió entonces: “Amigo mío, no te estoy engañando. ¿No estuvo de acuerdo conmigo en el salario diario habitual? y “¿Tienes envidia porque soy generoso?”. Así, los últimos serán los primeros y los primeros serán los últimos”. ¿Qué significa esto en lo que se refiere a nuestra vida diaria? La frase invoca uno de los siete pecados capitales conocidos como envidia. Tener envidia es tener celos, codiciar o desear algo que no se tiene. En los mandamientos se nos instruye a no codiciar las pertenencias de nuestro prójimo porque al hacerlo nos centramos en las posesiones materiales que nos distraen de una vida virtuosa. Esa vida debe estar centrada en Dios y en las buenas obras que podemos hacer para reflejar su amor. Se ha descubierto que la envidia es la destrucción de la bondad dentro de los humanos a través de la historia y la historia bíblica de Caín y Able. Dios nos llama a combatir la envidia con la virtud de la caridad que se puede demostrar a través de la generosidad y la servidumbre. Ser siervo de los demás significa ponernos en último lugar, como Jesucristo se puso humildemente en último lugar mediante los milagros, lavando los pies del discípulo y dando su vida por nosotros. Esta parábola nos recuerda que debemos ponernos en último lugar para poder ser los primeros a los ojos de Dios. ¡Dios los bendiga!
