PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

This One Is For The Graduates

Dear All 2024 Graduates,

Holy Spirit Catholic Church wants to wish you a wonderful graduation and summer! When you walk the stage remember to be present. Being present means to fully feel every emotion and have a sense of understanding and gratitude towards what is happening before your eyes. The closing of this chapter only happens once and what better way to process it then with your friends seated beside you and family in the stands. You have overcome many obstacles like studying and living during a pandemic, arranging post grad plans, balancing personal life, and hobbies. Many of you also overcame challenges that you prefer to keep private. Know that we here at Holy Spirit see you. How brave is it that you carried all your crosses just as Jesus carried his.

We want to leave you with some advice before you head off— take Jesus with you. The older you become the more responsibilities you will have and therefore the stresses of life can appear to outweigh you. Keeping your Catholic faith will help you live a happier and fulfilling life. Why? By placing your identity in the person that created everything, you will be empowered with the virtues to pursue the good in life. To do what is honorable and just for society. Avoid identity in objects and people that do not serve a higher purpose because they can distract you from the peace God wants you to have. Jesus' teachings remind us of that. So, no matter what your plans are after you graduate, keep God in your soul and community in your heart.

With Love,
H.S.
