FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Jesus said to them, ‘A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.’ So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.”

WEEKLY PRAYER

Sunday Readings

Reading 1: Ez 2:2-5

“Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day. Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you.”

Reading 2: 2 Cor 12:7-10

“Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.”

Gospel: Mk 6:1-6

Care for God’s Creation Prayer

God of all creation,
How splendid and majestic is the world you created!
It reveals your glory; it teaches us about you.
When you made us in your image, you gave us this command:
care for the world and for all the creatures in it, for this is our common home.
Yet your holy creation cries out, for our home is “burdened and laid waste,” scorched and scarred.
Come among us that we might remember our interdependence.
Let us see the face of your Son in those who suffer from the destruction of our common home.
Help us to be stewards who honor you in the world you have made for the good of all creation and for future generations.

May your justice reign forever!

Amen.

Church Festival Highlights

Community is the heart of any great gathering and our parish proved just that in last weekend's festival. Holy Spirit's Festival was a huge success as parishioners from our Vietnamese, Hispanic, and English communities welcomed summer with a variety of foods, entertainment, and activities for all. We want to give a huge shout out to all the volunteers that prepared the food, drinks, and set-up for this wonderful event. To the young-adult group that managed the games section, thank you for making memories with the little ones and providing many cool prizes for our energetic winners. To our trash pick-up, music-set up, and security, thank you for keeping our gathering clean, fun, and safe. Thank you for attending our festival and supporting Holy Spirit. Happy Summer!

Churches in Eastern Russia Talk

On the weekend of July 13/14, Fr. Daniel Maurer, CJD, from Mary Mother of God Mission Society and the Vladivostok Mission will visit our parish to speak about the Roman Catholic Mission Churches in Eastern Russia. A second offering will be taken for the missions.

In the early 1900's, the Russian Far East boasted a thriving Roman Catholic population. Many Russians, Poles, Lithuanians, and other groups inhabited the area and had built schools, hospitals, and beautiful churches. After the revolution of 1917, Russia became an emblem of the Communist era, a land without churches and without God. Under Stalin, all Catholic churches were confiscated and Dioceses closed. Most churches were desecrated or destroyed. Catholics were murdered by the hundreds of thousands and their bodies dumped into mass graves. Our two American priests, Fr. Myron Effing, CJD, and Fr. Daniel Maurer, CJD, arrived in Vladivostok in 1992 to help re-establish the Church in this region and provide charitable assistance to the many poor. Now that the foundations have been laid, additional priests and sisters are joining the work, and parishes are growing and multiplying, very slowly, but surely.
