Sunday Readings

Reading 1: Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10

Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, which consisted of men, women, and those children old enough to understand.

Reading 2: 1 Corinthians 12:12-30

Brothers and sisters: As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ.

Gospel: Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.

A Message from Pope Francis

Friday, Jan. 24th, 2025

"Always, when we speak of love, we speak of freedom: love without freedom: love without freedom is not love; it may be interest, it may be fear, many things, but love is always free, and being free it calls for a freely given response: it calls for our conversion. Thus, it means changing mentality - this is conversion, changing mentality - and changing life: no longer following the examples of the world but those of God, who is Jesus; following Jesus, "doing" as Jesus had done, and as Jesus taught us."

Spiritual Advice from the Saints

The true personality is one that is rooted in Christ; that is, a personality in which our thoughts are conformed to the thoughts of Jesus: we think like Jesus, love what Jesus loves, desire and do what Jesus would desire and do.

- Saint James Alberione

The only way to make rapid progress along the path of divine love is to remain very little and to put all our trust in Almighty God. That is what I have done.

- Saint Thérèse of Lisieux
