FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send our laborers for his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves."

- From the Gospel of Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

Sunday Readings

Reading 1: Isaiah 66:10-14c
 Thus says the Lord: Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad because of her, all you who love her; exult, exult with her, all you who were mourning over her! Oh, that you may suck fully of the milk of her comfort, that you may nurse with delight at her abundant breasts!.

Reading 2: Galatians 6:14-18
 Brothers and sisters: May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither does circumcision mean anything, nor does uncircumcision, but only a new creation.

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20
 At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest."

Spiritual Advice from the Saints

Jesus, I feel within me a great desire to please you, but, at the same time, I feel totally incapable of doing this without your special light and help, which I can expect only from you. Accomplish your will within me - even in spite of me.
 - Saint Claude de la Colobière

Do you hate to be deceived? Then never deceive another.
 - Saint John Chrysostom
